

Immanuel's - A Year with Jesus

A Steady and Reflective Reading of the Gospels in "One Year"

For 2025, we want to continue our spiritual discipline of reading God's Word daily. This year, we will focus on reading through the Gospels chronologically. We will sit, like Mary did, at Jesus' feet. We will walk the dusty roads of Judah with Jesus, just as James and John did. We will observe the Messiah's actions, much like Peter did.

This reading plan is not overly demanding. It is designed so that you can read each daily passage multiple times. Read it once for content, and then read it a second or third time for application. This is a great plan to journal as you read, practice visual faith, or pray through Scripture. (we will try and model these techniques if you are not familiar with them)

Below are a few questions. You might consider using one or two each day to apply the reading to your life: (share what you received from these questions)

1. What is God saying to me about Himself, myself, or the world?
2. What am I going to do or hold onto regarding what Jesus is doing or saying?
3. What promises or truths is Jesus giving me?
4. Jesus is showing that "The Kingdom of God is...?"

On Saturdays, take time to read all the texts from the week again to plant them deeply in your heart.
